

Asia & the Pacific

WHERE WE WORK

- Afghanistan ●●●
- Australia ●
- Bangladesh ●●●
- Bhutan ●
- Brunei ●
- Burma ●
- Cambodia ●●
- China ●
- Hong Kong ●
- India ●●●
- Indonesia ●●●●
- Japan ●
- Laos ●●
- Malaysia ●●
- Mongolia ●
- New Zealand ●●
- Nepal ●●●
- Pakistan ●●●
- Papua New Guinea ●
- Philippines ●●●
- Singapore ●
- South Korea ●
- Sri Lanka ●●
- Taiwan ●
- Thailand ●
- Vietnam ●●

- EDUCATION
- HEALTH
- CIVIL SOCIETY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT
- ENVIRONMENT AND ENERGY

SELECTED PROJECTS

- ▶ A2Z Micronutrient Leadership and Support and Child Blindness
- ▶ Afghanistan Higher Education Program
- ▶ Afghanistan Rural Investment and Enterprise Strengthening Program in Afghanistan (ARIES)
- ▶ Avian Influenza Prevention and Control
- ▶ Bangladesh Human Rights Advocacy Project
- ▶ Basic Support for Institutionalizing Child Survival II (BASICS II)
- ▶ Decentralization of Basic Education, Indonesia
- ▶ Food and Nutrition Technical Assistance Project (FANTA), India
- ▶ International Visitor Leadership Program
- ▶ Nepal Social Marketing and Franchise Project for AIDS, Reproductive Health and Child Survival (N-MARC)
- ▶ Point-of-Use Water Disinfection and Zinc Treatment (POUZN)
- ▶ Primary Education Development Program, Bangladesh
- ▶ Promotion of Safe Drinking Water and Hygiene in Pakistan
- ▶ South Asia Regional Initiative/Equity Project
- ▶ Sri Lanka: Peace Support Project
- ▶ The Nepal Transition to Peace Initiative
- ▶ Trafficking of People Information Center Web site - HumanTrafficking.org

AED has been involved in Asia for more than two decades.

- In Vietnam, AED has distributed nearly 3 million leaflets detailing specific steps backyard farmers can take to prevent avian flu.
- In South Asia, to protect women and children from trafficking, AED assisted nearly 29,000 individuals.